Eye on the Board

The board met on July 11th and August 8th.

- The planning for the Annual Summer Picnic was discussed.
- Services for the upcoming church year are being finalized with a few dates left to work on.
- Christi has graciously agreed to be the board secretary.
- Cameras were purchased to be installed outside of the building.
- Our current refrigerator is not working well. Plans to get another were discussed.
- Details finalized for the Welcome Back breakfast.

Thank you, Susan Daiss, for 30 years of great service to the members of PMUC!

newest granddaughter,
Amelia – 6lbs 7oz.*

Welcome back Reverend Bob LaVallee!

Reverend Bob LaVallee spent the last six years serving a large UU congregation in New Mexico. He is absolutely thrilled to be back in his hometown, where he works as a spiritual care counselor for Hospice of Buffalo. We look forward to seeing Reverend Bob on September 28th!
